McCALLUM THEATRE AND
CITY OF PALM DESERT PRESENT
“STARS, STRIPES & SONGS-
A CELEBRATION OF VETERANS”
Monday, November 10, 2025

Palm Desert, CA -In a heartfelt salute to our nation's heroes, the Mc Callum Theatre, in partnership with the City of Palm Desert, will host its first ever Celebration of Veterans, Stars Stripes & Songs on Monday, November 10th, 2025, at 7:00 pm (Veterans Day Eve).

This special evening is dedicated to honoring all who have served, along with their families whose love and sacrifices strengthen our nation. With stirring music, patriotic pride, and community spirit, Stars, Stripes & Songs promises to be a night of gratitude, reflection, and unity.

The celebration will feature:

Inspirational performances by acclaimed vocalists in a U.S.O. styled show performing patriotic classics and uplifting American standards.

A salute to service recognizing local veterans, active-duty military, and their families.

Community pride on stage as local performers join in to honor those who have worn the uniform.

"This evening is about more than music-it's about community," said Yvonne Bell, CEO of the McCallum Theatre. "We are coming together to say thank you to the men and women who have served and to their families, who serve right alongside them."

"The City of Palm Desert is honored to join the Mc Callum in presenting this inaugural event. Palm Desert has always taken pride in honoring our veterans". Stars, Stripes & Songs is a way for us to stand together and celebrate the courage, service and sacrifice of all our local heroes", Bell concludes..

All are invited from veterans, their families to the neighbors. Tickets are available now at $30.00 inclusive of fees. For tickets and information go to www.mccallumtheatre.org.
